

I was referred to Atty. Dan Becka by previous clients who were extremely complimentary of his work. I soon found that these positive comments were quite true. I found Dan to be very straightforward from the beginning and patiently outlined to me not only the various legal strategies to be employed, but also some of the hurdles that we would have to face going forward. Though most legal processes have a tendency to lag on seemingly forever, Dan diligently worked on my behalf on a daily basis to bring my case to a positive conclusion relatively quickly. I was always kept updated with regard to all facets of the case and felt comfortable that we were prepared for all contingencies.

I found Dan to be extremely diligent, highly experienced, trustworthy, intelligent, and honest. He worked as efficiently as possible for me and we were able to achieve a positive outcome. All of the alleged charges were dismissed with prejudice. I am grateful to Dan for his hard work and would readily recommend him to other potential clients.
